JAN
11-26
2012

Presented by The Jewish Museum & the Film Society of Lincoln Center

Dressing America: Tales From The Garment Center

Stephen Fischler & Joel Sucher | USA | 2011 | 57m

From the directors of From Swastika to Jim Crow (NYJFF 2000) comes this fascinating documentary exploring the post-World War II heyday of the garment district in Manhattan. Mavens of the “shmatte” business pay tribute to the Jewish immigrant roots of the garment industry, when Sam, You Made the Pants Too Long was a top musical hit and American designers challenged the hegemony of Paris fashion.

DIRECTORS STEPHEN FISCHLER AND JOEL SUCHER WILL ATTEND.
